

PHILIPPINE POULTRY SHOW AND ILDEX PHILIPPINES

The Showcase for Latest Technology & Seminar for the Poultry Industry, Livestock and Dairy Products

Why Choose the Philippines Market?

ORGANIZED BY

vnu | ASIA PACIFIC

POWERED BY

The Philippines boasts a thriving livestock industry, with a strong focus on poultry, pig production, and cattle raising. Driven by a growing population and an expanding middle class, the demand for livestock products is on a steady rise. The Philippine economy has historically achieved moderate growth rates of 5% to 6%, demonstrating resilience and potential for further development.

The Philippines offers a wealth of investment opportunities across various sectors, including agriculture and livestock. Foreign investors can tap into this potential, but they must navigate the regulatory environment and policies diligently. Through trade exhibitions, buyers can not only source new business partners, but also discover innovative products and ideas. Embrace the potential of the Philippines market, and unlock a world of possibilities for growth and success.
